

COMMUNITY CHRONICLE

March 26, 2008

The Community Chronicle is a weekly publication of the Greek Promotion Team. Our goal is to provide Purdue's Fraternity and Sorority Community with current information about important activities occurring on Purdue's campus. We are dedicated to publicizing events that promote scholarship, leadership, service, and friendship within our community.

PURDUE
Fraternity and Sorority Life

Risk Management Fact:

Did you know....a function is an event characterized and defined by one or more of the following but not limited to: (a) registration through IFC, (b) any chapter member took part in the coordination of the event or chapter funds from the treasury or individual members were used to sponsor the event.

Applications

Applications for Order of Omega and Skull and Crescent Greek Honorary Societies are now available. Skull and Crescent, a sophomore leadership honorary, is due in the IFC office April 4. Order of Omega is for incoming seniors, and is due in the IFC office on April 4 as well.

Grand Prix Convocation

-Don't forget that on March 31, Grand Prix Convocation will be held in the Elliot Hall of Music at 6 pm. The speaker this year is Ross Szabo from Campuspeak! He'll be addressing mental health illnesses in college students and what happy faces hide! Get ready for a great speaker and don't forget to hit your attendance quota!
